

LOW SCORE FOR KIRKBY IN ROUND FOR JERSEY TITLE

Travers Will Probably Fight It Out With Him Again This Week.

(Special to The Evening World.)
 ENGLEWOOD, N. J., June 1.—Freshened by yesterday's rain and exempt by temperate wind, the New Jersey State Golf Championship began this morning under ideal conditions at the Englewood Club links. With J. D. Travers and Oswald Kirby, the finalists last Sunday of the Metropolitan Championship, as early starters, there is a prospect of last week's great struggle being fought out over again. Next to Travers and Kirby, Max Behr, the title holder for the last two years, attracted the most attention, although some early scores were placed at odds that he could not get further than the semi-finals. All told there were 12 entries or about a dozen more than the largest used to date.
 Max Behr, who held the title six years ago, but has practically been out of the sport since, got away early and declared his intention to "come back." The qualifying round is at 18 holes. Best daily score:
 Oswald Kirby, Hackensack—54. E. P. Madden Jr., Madison, 55; C. W. Macerone,

Englewood, 55; H. W. Marlin, Upper Montclair, 56; Fred Fullerton, Canoe Brook, 55; Mary Michaels, Yonkers, 57; W. H. Watt, Hackensack, 58; George Vanhook, Englewood, 59; J. J. Wearnshaw, Upper Montclair, 57; H. P. Reinhardt, Englewood, 59; Harry Alsopp, Rorest Hill, 57; Morgan Smith, Morris County, 58; C. N. Phillips, Atlantic City, 58; F. B. Richardson, Morris County, 59; Harry Weatherly, Englewood, 59; W. N. Coier, Canoe Brook, 59; James A. Tyns, Hackensack, 58; H. T. Mayer, Glenridge, 59.
 Kirby made a 72, 35 out and 37, which looks low against the other scores, but is really five strokes higher than his own record, made here last fall. Except for missing a couple of putts of less than two feet, his play approached perfection. Travers took 78, 46 out and 32 in. The latter took 8 strokes each on the first three holes, to 4 each for Kirby. Max Behr, present champion, made few mistakes, but with five 6's out he landed him seven strokes above low score. Team matches were run off simultaneously with the medal round and were a feature of the day. Eleven teams competed, Englewood totalling 24 points and Hackensack 209.

TO SING FOR DE RESZKE.

Miss Victorini Hayes Invited to Visit Him and Puccini.

At the special invitation of Jean de Reszke and Giacomo Puccini, Miss Victorini Hayes, a New York girl, started today for Paris and Milan on board the French liner La Lorraine. She is accompanied by her instructor, Miss Susanah Macaulay. In Paris she will sing before M. de Reszke. He has asked her to permit him to suggest an instructor in the Italian school of music, and has named Carignan as his choice. Miss Hayes met Puccini while that composer was here at the production of his "The Girl of the Golden West," and, after hearing her remarkable lyric soprano, asked her to come to him in Milan.

PARK ROW PERMITS FOR OBSTRUCTIONS ORDERED REMOVED Estimate Board Resolves That Encroachments Must Go Despite Owners' Protest.

Despite pronounced opposition by interested property owners, all sidewalk encroachments in Park Row from Broadway to Spruce street and in Fulton and Ann streets, from Park Row to William street, must disappear. Recently Borough President McAneny's engineers decided that obstructions extending beyond the building line were impediments to traffic and illegally present. Accordingly today the Board of Estimate adopted resolutions revoking all sidewalk permits for recalcitrant showcases, stands, storm doors, stoops and projecting signboards. More than half a hundred property owners and business men in the district affected appeared before the board today to plead for a rehearing of their side of the case. They presented arguments to show that a grave injustice would be done them if the drastic order removing all encroachments were carried out. Louis Mouquin, the Ann street restaurateur, told John T. Meahan, the "Beef and" man, also urged a lenient interpretation of the order. The vote of the board favoring removal was unanimous, however. In answer to the protest, President McAneny said there never had existed any legal right for basement stairways which encroached on public streets. He indicated the congestion of traffic as an overpowering argument in favor of removing obstructions.

Mayor Gaynor remarked that it was only fair that the official eye should at times be closed to certain cases, but that in glaring instances of violation these cases could not be glossed over.

In the Heart of Homes

The beer for family use, above all others, should be bottled at the Brewery.

Do you know that the only sanitary way of bottling beer is at the Brewery, where the empty bottles can be thoroughly Sterilized and the filled bottles properly Pasteurized?

PETER DOELGER
 FIRST PRIZE BOTTLED BEER
 EXPRESSLY FOR THE HOME

is the Beer of Beers for the entire family, the Beer that is entitled to its place in the Heart of Homes.

It is bottled at the brewery exclusively. When the pure beer has been poured into a thoroughly Sterile bottle, automatically capped and sealed, the filled bottle is subjected to perfect Pasteurization, which will kill any and all germ life that may otherwise defy even the greatest precautions.

$1.25 the case of 24 bottles—one cent a bottle more than the ordinary beer. A little higher in price—a great deal higher in quality.

Order a trial case from your regular dealer. If he does not carry it, kindly let us know, we will see that you are promptly supplied.

An Invitation

A personal inspection of our Model Brewery and Bottling Plant will prove to be an education well worth while.

Come any day, you will receive a most courteous welcome.

All of Latest Fancy Fabrics

All Made the Wanamaker Way

One of the events that we like to throw into a week's programme as a matter of ginger!

Basis of this offering is a manufacturer's overstock—failure of looked-for orders to materialize—and a slight craving for ready money with which to discount his bills.

We selected the best fabrics he had, turned them over to tailors who are used to the WANAMAKER WAY of making clothes, and the result is the finest collection of sprig, new summer suits we have seen come into the store for under-selling in a long while! Tans, browns, grays.

102 Suits of Usual $25 Value
 42 Suits of Usual $28 Value
 31 Suits of Usual $30 Value
$18

To add to the variety of the fabrics we have had a few very fine "season-ends" made up for us, and these will be included in the selling.

In placing the actual values of these suits at $25, $28 and $30 we are leaning to the side of conservatism.

And it is a real pleasure to say that they are yours at $18. It means the making of 175 mighty good friends for this clothing store!

Several Hundreds of Them Leave for Other Parts Tomorrow

Traveling Price-Light—$15 and $25

Although they Carried $25 to $47.50 Markings Earlier in the Season

One of the foundation stones on which is built the success of this suit business (perhaps the most successful in America) is the fact that the opening of each season finds us freed of everything that even whispers of the preceding season.

And this is an instance of how we accomplish it.

In the $15 Group

Smartest little suits of black satin that pleased us immensely when they came here to sell at $28.50, right on the heels of the exhibition of their Parisian originals which travelled in the $50 and $60 class.

And more practical and quite as popular suits of blue and black serge. One model with sailor collar and cuffs of the natty two-toned braid. (These were $27.50.) Another model to be mentioned specially has pointed collars of satin over pongee and three-quarter sleeves. (These were $25 earlier.)

Thousands of trunks are being packed right now—for Europe, for the shore, for the mountains. In nearly every one of them can be found a niche and a welcome for one of these under-priced costumes. Wherever they go, they are sure to reflect credit on the wearer and on this store.

Come early if you can—but come.
